Emergency Preparedness Committee

update: The committee is making progress on it's recommendations for the Board. For now, each individual resident should look at FEMA's website and decide which supplies they need for their own emergency supply kit (food, water, first aid kit, batteries, flashlights, etc.). For more information go to www.ready.gov. We also have numerous brochures on the table next to the office for you to pick up and read at your leisure. Titles include: High Rise Fire Safety, Preparing Makes Sense (with special editions for Pets, Older Americans and People with Disabilities) and Emergency Supply List. Together we can all be ready for the next emergency!

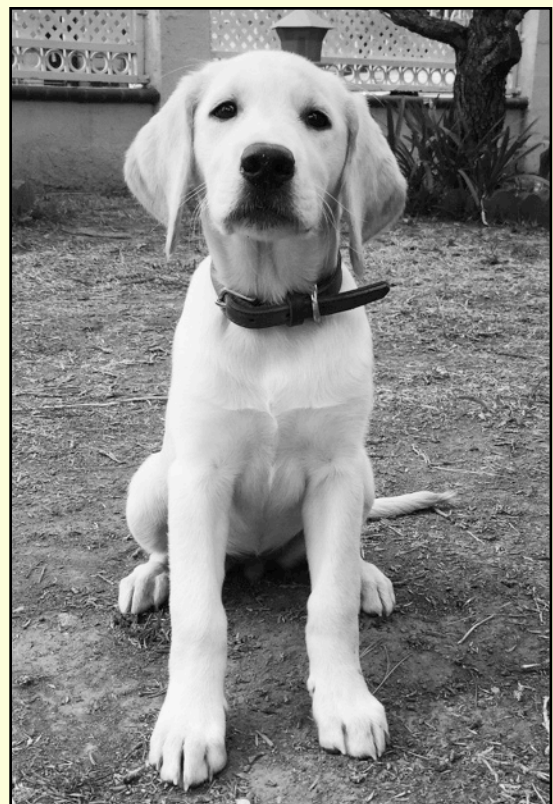

Museum Open House: To celebrate the Lafayette Hotel's opening its doors on October 28, 1929, we will have an open house on Saturday, October 10 from 1-3pm. Come see historical photos and items as well as a scrapbook documenting the building's nearly 90 year history! Recently the office acquired from eBay a 1939 Lafayette Hotel "Guest Informant" book that was left for guests in their rooms. This unique item contains wonderful drawings of the Lafayette, photos of Long Beach and delightful ads from yesteryear. Come learn about your home and meet some neighbors!

Moving Boxes: Did you know that the Lafayette has a room full of moving boxes? If you need some or would like to donate ones that are in good shape and broken down ready to be reused, please see the office!

Garden Update: We are very close to choosing a contractor for the Campbell Garden makeover. Improvements include total concrete replacement, an irrigation system and drought tolerant plants! 🌱

MEET YOUR ANIMAL NEIGHBOR

Pet of the Month

"Hi! My name is Delilah, a Labrador Retriever, but I go by Lilah for short. I'm the new girl on the 6th floor. The vet said I can't go out too much because I don't have all my shots yet, so for now I'll just lounge around and play with my parents. I love sleeping. That's something I'm quite good at and I love snuggling with my family. I'm really shy but once I get to know you I will not leave you alone. So don't hesitate to say 'hi' so I can give you puppy kisses." 🐾
